

SERVICES CAPABILITY STATEMENT

Construction

“ INSTRUMENTATION IS A HIGHLY SPECIALISED FIELD THAT REQUIRES PROFESSIONALS. WHEN IT COMES TO INSTRUMENTATION INSTALLATION THE LAST THING YOU WANT TO DO IS LEAVE IT TO UNSKILLED OR INEXPERIENCED WORKERS. THE RISK IS SIMPLY TOO HIGH. ”

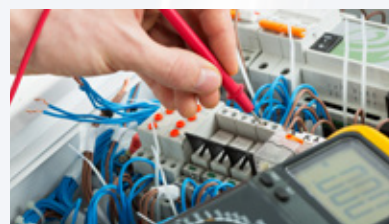

THE WORD SPECIALIST SHOULD BE SYNONYMOUS WITH SLADE INDUSTRIES BY NOW, PARTICULARLY WHEN IT COMES TO THE CONSTRUCTION PHASE OF ANY PROJECT.

At Slade Industries we are so dedicated to the claim that we are specialists that we have, not years, but decades of experience in instrumentation installation. In addition to instrumentation installation, we also have the capability to serve as an 'Owners Representative' by providing construction supervision and management services. You can be confident that any instrumentation installation that is completed by us is done to the highest possible standard. This will ensure that the construction phase is not only finished upon practical completion but the facility is entirely prepared for the commissioning phase to commence.

“ AT SLADE INDUSTRIES WE WANT TO GIVE YOU PEACE OF MIND THROUGHOUT THE ENTIRE PROCESS AND WILL GO TO GREAT LENGTHS TO DO SO. ”

CONSTRUCTION

AT SLADE INDUSTRIES WE ARE COMMITTED TO EVERY PROJECT WE UNDERTAKE AND PRIDE OURSELVES ON OUR WORK ETHIC AND INTEGRITY.

THAT IS WHY WE ARE CONSTANTLY THINKING ONE STEP AHEAD OF THE GAME.

So you've enlisted us to partake in specialised instrumentation installation, or maybe you've enlisted us to serve as an owner's representative. What matters is how successful we are in completing it and preparing you for the next phase.

We don't take anything lightly and what we do is never considered a 'job' to us. It is our passion. It is because of our passion for what we do that we focus on the follow through whilst others may not have the same foresight. Everything, whether it be our instrumentation installation or construction supervision and management, is carried out with the intent to benefit not only the commissioning phase but also installed with a maintenance perspective in mind.

We are focused on getting the best outcome for the commissioning process and better preparing the plant or facility for operational readiness. Additionally, because of our dedication to Instrumentation we are able to provide you with a unique edge that you will not receive from anyone else. Simply put, when you enlist specialists you receive specialist services.

To further ensure the future success of the commissioning phase we clearly prepare all of the documentation and information necessary for the project to move forward. At Slade Industries we want to give you peace of mind throughout the entire process and will go to great lengths to do so.

“ WE DON'T TAKE ANYTHING LIGHTLY AND WHAT WE DO IS NEVER CONSIDERED A 'JOB' TO US. ”
